Discover San Francisco Haunts on San Francisco Ghost Hunt's Hair-raising Jaunt

Join Magician Christian Cagigal for San Francisco's oldest and best haunted walking tour now accepting reservations through October 31

Celebrate Halloween, or the witching hour of your choice, at San Francisco's premiere haunted walking tour, the San Francisco Ghost Hunt. Founded in 1998 by local raconteur and paranormal investigator Jim Fassbinder, this decades-old tradition combines San Francisco's rich haunted history with storytelling, insider gossip, and a magic twist provided by San Francisco Ghost Hunt's current owner-operator, award-winning magician and performing artist Christian Cagigal. A fascinating overview of the families and individuals who made San Francisco what it was—and the restless spirits they left behind to carry their legacy into today. Suitable for both locals and intrepid travelers looking for something offbeat and informative, spooky and fun, San Francisco Ghost Hunt is an essential stop on the local walking tour circuit, and the (unofficial) network of Ghost tours nationwide.

As an esteemed member of the press, we'd like to invite you and a companion to come on any tour, free of charge, in order to experience this essential San Francisco spook-tacle for yourself. Please contact sfghosthuntpress@gmail.com for reservations or for additional information regarding the tour's origin, sites, or owner-operator Christian Cagigal.

About San Francisco Ghost Hunt:

The San Francisco Ghost Hunt, the city's first ghost tour, founded in 1998, is a historic walking tour of the Pacific Heights neighborhood, one of the few neighborhoods to survive the great earthquake and fire of 1906. A fascinating overview of some of San Francisco's most scandalous and overlooked histories, the San Francisco Ghost Hunt appeals to amateur historians, lovers of the magical and macabre, ghost tour enthusiasts, and flaneurs of all stripes, and is suitable for participants of ten-years-old and up, who can comfortably walk one mile in 90-120 minutes.

About Christian Cagigal:

Christian Cagigal has been performing his trademark blend of theatre, storytelling, and magic as an Artist-in-Residence at EXIT Theatre, in San Francisco, since 2006, and internationally since 2009. He's a former member of The San Francisco Mime Troupe and a regular performer at the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, California, and with Odd Salon and the Tenderloin Museum in San Francisco. He's been named a Finalist for the Theatre Bay Area Award for Best Solo Performer; recipient of a Mastermind Award by the SF Weekly; and four-time winner of the Best Magician of the Bay Award by the San Francisco Bay Guardian. He's the Cofounder of the annual Fog City Magic Fest, and the current owner-operator, since 2016, of the San Francisco Ghost Hunt Walking Tour.
